In His book, "I am a Church Member" Thom Rainer said, "Serving and leading a church expends [much] of a pastor's energy. He is on call every day and every hour. The pastor has to make dozens of decisions each week that require wisdom. He needs to know what to preach; he needs wisdom dealing with [the demands] upon him. We who are church members should pray for the health of our pastor. He feels stress and pressures every day. We can pray that he will experience the peace that only God can give. It requires discipline, but not a lot time; we need to be willing to pray for all of the leaders of the church. Can you commit to this? I will pray for my pastor every day. I understand that the pastor's work is never ending. His days are filled with numerous demands that bring emotional highs and lows. He must deal with critics and be a good husband and father. Because my pastor cannot do all things in his own power, I will pray for his strength and wisdom daily..."
